

Community volunteer and planning consultant for Salinas Regional Sports Authority Brian Foucht released the following statement after the announced soccer complex project approval, thanking firms and individuals who have served key technical roles in project development thus far:

The Salinas Regional Sports Authority's Regional Soccer Complex Project received unanimous approval by the Salinas City Council on Tuesday November 18, 2014. Salinas Regional Sports Authority acknowledges the high quality and thoroughness of the scientific and technical background work, and the extra commitment and diligence of our technical team as key to this achievement. SRSA thanks the following firms and individuals for their important work on our behalf:

- Whitson Engineers: Rich Weber P.E.
- Balance Hydrologics: Mark Woyshner, MS. Eng; Eric Reidner, PE; Ed Ballman, CFM, CPSWQ; Barry Hecht, CSg.
- Bellinger Foster Steinmetz, Landscape Architects: Larry Foster, CLA; Mike Bellinger ASLA, CLA
- Hexagon Transportation Consultants: Brian Jackson, Traffic Engineer
- Haro-Kasunich and Associates, Geotechnical Engineers: Joe Haro, PE; Moses Cuprill, P.E.; Jeff Davis
- Illingworth & Rodkin, Acoustical and Air Quality Engineers: Michael Thill; Richard Rodkin, P.E.
- Kevin Merk and Associates: Kevin Merk, Principal Biologist
- Ed Mercurio: Biologist
- Trinity Source Group, Environmental Consultants (Phase I Soils): David Reinsma,PG; Debra Moser, PG,HG, CEG